Jan. 6, Sun.: Fly Kansas City to Cancun, Mexico in the morning, arriving about noon. Load on bus at Cancun Airport and drive south to Chetumal for the night.
Meals provided: D

Jan. 7, Mon.: Close to Chetumal are two impressive sites: Dzibanche and Kohunlich. Dzibanche was named for the hieroglyphic writings found there including a hieroglyphic staircase. Kohunlich is known for its large masks flanking the stairway on one of its major buildings. These two sites may be part of the line of cities built along the east seacoast referenced in Alma 23. We continue on to the ruins of Chicanna at the village of Xpuhil where we spend the night.
Meals provided: B & D

Jan. 8, Tues.: Visit the ruins of Becan before we head southwest to Palenque, a three-hour drive. Becan is an important site because its fortifications are clearly visible. It’s also a fun-filled site because of its many tunnels and passageways.
Meals provided: B&D

Jan. 9, Wed.: Be prepared for a long but rewarding day as we travel by bus then river boat down the Usumacinta River—watch for crocodiles!—to Yaxchilan. First we will stop for breakfast in the jungle and a short visit to the ruins of Bonampak with its famous frescoes or murals. Continue to the village of Fonterra Coronal where we board the river boats for the trip to Yaxchilan. Late afternoon we return to the hotel in Palenque.
Meals provided: B & D

Jan. 10, Thurs.: We will spend all day at Palenque, a beautiful and important site. Its numerous inscriptions bear witness of a knowledge of the Lord and his creation. A small river runs through the ancient city and becomes a wonderful waterfall deep in the rainforest next to former residences.
Meals provided: B&D (If so inclined, you can purchase lunch at a small restaurant at the site.)

Jan. 11, Fri.: Leave Palenque and drive to the ruins of Edzna in the State of Campeche. After visiting the ruins drive on to Uxmal for the night. Edzna has an unusual building of five-stories that combines features of palaces and pyramids. “Aerial reconnaissance has disclosed that Edzna is surrounded by a complex system of canals and reservoirs and that a square, fortress-like structure is encompassed by a moat..... While most of what one sees at Edzna is Late Classic in date, it is noteworthy that at least some of the canals go back to the Late Preclassic.” (Michael D. Coe, The Maya: 1987)
Meals provided: B&D

Jan. 12, Sat.: Today visit the ruins of Uxmal, Sayil, and Labna, which are close together. Spend the night at Uxmal. Although these three ancient cities were built after The Book of Mormon period, they are worth visiting for the architecture and motifs found there. Uxmal’s acoustics are so perfect that symphony orchestras perform there.
Meals provided: B&D

Jan. 13, Sun.: Leave Uxmal early and drive to Chichen Itza to see the Pyramid of Kulkulkan and the observatory, and one of the largest Maya ball courts that has the carved portrait of the Bearded White God in a building at one end of the court. Just after noon leave for Cancun.
Meals provided B & D

Jan. 14, Mon.: All day at the beach in Cancun.
